FOOD SERVICE

Thoughtfully selected ingredients.
Quality food schools can feel confident serving.

For more than 35 years, food has been at the heart of our family and our business. We manufacture quality food we feel good about serving to our own families. For K-12 schools, we're committed to foods that are high-quality, nutritious, great-tasting, and made with thoughtfully selected ingredients for healthy, growing children.

A Commitment That Continues to Grow

We continually evaluate our formulations and ingredient specifications to find opportunities to simplify labels, improve ingredient choices, and remove additives that no longer align with our standards. As better ingredient solutions become available, we will make thoughtful changes while maintaining nutrition, quality, taste, food safety, functionality, and value.
